WE'RE ARMED AND STAYING

Gypsies' warning as £13m eviction plans put in place

Sam Smith

"WE are armed and ready to fight" is the message from travellers based north-west of Essex's biggest town.

The warning was issued in Basildon Borough Council news last week following a meeting of council members about the £13m plan to evict the travellers from the site.

Traveller Jerry Delaney, 55, said: "We are going to get the council and we are going to get the council."

"We are going to get the council and we are going to get the council," he said. "We are going to get the council and we are going to get the council."

"We are going to get the council and we are going to get the council," he said. "We are going to get the council and we are going to get the council."
